Gov. Beckham Willing to Testify in Public Hearing.

Expresses An Unwillingness to Be Hauled Before Star Chamber Sessions.

FRANKFORT'S LATE SENSATION

Frankfort, Ky., March 8.—Gov. Beckham created the sensation of the session yesterday afternoon when he appeared before the senate investigating committee appointed to look into the public printing affairs and declared that he desired to say for himself, Auditor Hager and Secretary of State McChesney that they did not desire to testify before a star chamber session of the committee, but would gladly go before a public meeting of the committee and tell what they know. He said further that some things had come to his ears that he desired to give the committee the benefit of, and the committee then voted to hold an open session today to hear the governor's testimony.

The affair is all the talk in Frankfort today and the governor's testimony promises to be sensational.

COL. LARUE HERE

Former Deputy Marshal is Raising Ginseng at Present.

The Industry Is An Interesting and Profitable One Everywhere.

Captain M. W. Larue, formerly deputy U. S. marshal in this district, but who is now in charge of a mill up in Caldwell county, is in the city today for a brief visit to his friends here. Colonel Larue had not been in Paducah for several months until he came down today.

He is now greatly interested in ginseng growing and on his farm near Celina Junction, in Hardin county, Ky. He will this year put out several thousand ginseng plants and sow twelve or fifteen thousand seed. He has eleven acres in which to do it, and declares that if he lives five years, at the end of that time he will have a million plants. If the price of ginseng remains the same as now, the crop will be worth somewhere near $250,000, which Captain Larue thinks is worth working and waiting for.

Ginseng growing is now attracting considerable attention in many sections of the country. Ginseng root is exported principally to China, where it is considered a panacea for all ills. Mr. Richard Baker, formerly a well known traveling man of Seventh and Monroe streets, Paducah, had about a thousand plants in his back yard last summer, but when he moved to St. Louis several months ago, he took them with him.

LYNCHED IN OHIO

A Kentucky Negro Hanged and Riddled With Bullets.

Out Down in Four Hours—Killed a Policeman There Sunday Morning.

THE MOB DENOUNCED TODAY

Springfield, O., March 8.—Richard Dickerson, a negro whose home was in Cynthiana, Ky., was taken from the county jail here about 11 o'clock last night and shot to death. His body was then taken to the intersection of Main street and Fountain avenue and suspended from a telegraph pole and riddled with about 2000 bullets.

The jail door was battered down with a railroad iron, the negro was seen and killed immediately upon being taken outside.

Sunday he asked Officer Charles Collins to go with him to his room and assist him in getting his clothing from his mistress, Mamie Corbin. The officer accompanied him, and upon reaching the house the negro and the woman engaged in a quarrel as a result of which he drew a pistol and shot her in the breast. The officer jumped forward to prevent further trouble and Dickerson then shot the officer four times. The officer fired at the fleeing negro as he staggered outside the house, but missed. Dickerson gave himself up, claiming self-defense, and was placed in jail. The woman may recover but the officer died yesterday.

When the mob began to gather it was composed largely of boys, but soon several hundred men were present and a leader was secured. It dispersed apparently about 10:30 o'clock but quickly reassembled for a concerted attack, and got the prisoner.

They battered down the two doors, and fully 250 men entered the jail. Fearing that innocent lives might be lost by further resistance, the turnkeys agreed to give up the right man, and the terrified negro was dragged out of his cell door and to the stone steps.

Outside the mob seemed to fear that he would be rescued by the police, and several knocked him down. As he lay there nine bullets were fired into his body, killing him instantly. The body was then taken and hung to the telegraph pole, where it remained for four hours.

Judge Mower, of the common pleas court, today denounced the lynching as a disgrace to the county, and said he would call a special grand jury to investigate it.

The negro's body will be shipped to Cynthiana, Ky., for burial.

RUSSIA IS NOT READY TO FIGHT JUST YET

RUSSIAN FORTS STILL SILENT.

St. Petersburg, March 8.—Viceroy Alexeff yesterday telegraphed the czar from Mukden as follows:

"Supplementing my telegram of March 6, I most humbly report that at 1:25 p. m. five out of seven of the enemy's ships opened fire on Forts Svaroff and Linevitch, on the town on the roadstead and along the valley of the river Obysaneniye.

"Firing lasted until 2:15 p. m., at which hour the Japanese squadron began to steam to the southward, disappearing at 5:30 p. m. There were no losses on the batteries or the fortifications. In the town one seaman was wounded and one woman was killed.

"According to the information just received, the enemy's squadron again appeared in sight of the fortress at 8 o'clock this morning."

A later message says: "The commandant at Vladivostok reports that Sunday's bombardment resulted in no serious damage to the port. The fortress did not return the enemy's fire.

"Today at midday the enemy again entered Ussuri bay and approached the point from which they bombarded the harbor on March 3. They left again, making for the open sea."

RUSSIA AVOIDING TROUBLE.

Paris, March 8.—A telegram from St. Petersburg says that little fear is entertained there regarding the safety of the Russian Vladivostok squadron. On account of the speed of these vessels, it is believed that they will be able to avoid an encounter with the Japanese until the commencement of summer when the Russian situation is expected to be improved.

RUSSIA DENIES JAPANESE FAKE

St. Petersburg, March 8.—Your correspondent today interviewed a prominent official on the report that Russia wished mediation in her war with Japan, and he said the project was preposterous and that the war would be continued until Russia obtained a brilliant success to relieve her reverses at the sea.

5000 ARE SUFFERING.

Berlin, March 8.—A dispatch received here reports appalling suffering of five thousand refugees from Port Arthur, Vladivostok and other towns in Manchuria and Siberia. They are mostly women and children and are without food or facilities for keeping warm.

HAS RUSSIA ENOUGH?

London, March 8.—Information has reached London from various sources that the czar is most eager to have the powers mediate in the Far East and put an end to the war which has proved so disastrous to his naval forces. It is said Russia is willing to refer the whole dispute to The Hague tribunal.

STILL TRYING TO "BOTTLE UP."

London, March 8.—The Paris correspondent of the exchange telegraph wires that a report has reached there that the Japanese made another attempt to block the entrance to Port Arthur by sinking coasting ships. The details are lacking.

EVERYTHING TRANQUIL.

Port Arthur, March 8.—Admiral Makara who takes charge of the squadron here temporarily, arrived at Dalny yesterday. Complete tranquillity prevails about here and nothing can be seen of the enemy.

SAY IT WAS ONLY MANEUVER.

St. Petersburg, March 8.—Advices from Vladivostok say that the Japanese fleet merely maneuvered Monday and that no bombardment occurred, as reported in Paris.

MASSACRES REPORTED.

Rome, March 8.—The Agenzia Libera reports a number of Chinese and Japanese massacred in the Vladivostok district. The Japanese government is said to have entered a protest.

NEW EVIDENCE

ATTORNEY CROSS SAYS HE HAS AFFIDAVITS OF WHITE WITNESSES.

Attorney Dave Cross, who defended Wm. Lightfoot, the colored brakeman convicted of the murder of Roy Sloan at Woodstock, Tenn., states that he has discovered new evidence which will without a doubt secure the acquittal of his client. He has now obtained the affidavits of three or more reliable white witnesses who say they will testify that Lightfoot was in Paducah on Sunday night, the night of the murder. Attorney Cross will at once take steps to have the evidence presented to the court and considered when the motion for a new trial is argued next Saturday at Memphis.

RAIDED THE DENS

SERIOUS CHARGES MADE AGAINST THE SHERIFF AT KNOXVILLE.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 8.—Early Sunday morning Deputy Sheriff John Laceywell made a raid on three alleged gambling rooms, capturing a large number of men who he claimed were gambling at the time. Today Sheriff Hays removed Laceywell from his force. Laceywell immediately sent Sheriff Hays a letter embodying charges which are very libellous if not true, and which cannot be printed. Laceywell announces that he will have his charges struck off on dodgers and distributed all over the country. The affair has created quite a sensation.

Col. Nall After Cotton Grown in Kentucky—Minister Comes Clear.

DEATHS AT HOPKINSVILLE.

Shepherdsville, Ky., March 8.—

While out coon hunting Henry Shepherd was accidentally shot and instantly killed by his companion, Arch Prather. It seems that the two young men were in the act of getting over a high fence when the accident occurred. Young Shepherd had small pox, and his dead body lay in the woods many hours. Shepherd, it is said, contracted the disease in Louisville several weeks since and when about to be sent to a pest house fled and came to the farm of his mother where he had been staying in an isolated cabin on the place. The killing of Shepherd is regarded as purely an accident.

COTTON GROWN IN KENTUCKY?

Nall, superintendent of the Agricultural Department of the Kentucky Exhibit Association has gone on a trip to Fulton and Graves counties to get a suitable exhibit of the cotton products of that section. With her cotton properly displayed Kentucky will be able to show more diversified crops than any state in the Union.

THE NEW SCALES

Three Unions Want Increases in Wages.

The Plumbers Will Ask For Changes, but Not For Increases in Wages.

NOTES OF BUILDING HERE

The annual demands of those unions that desire increases in compensation are now being formulated, and three of the local unions have served notice on contractors of the scale they expect for the coming season. These are the bricklayers, the carpenters and the painters. The first named want $5 a day instead of $4.50, the carpenters $5 cents an hour instead of 28, and the painters $2.75 instead of $2.50. The bricklayers' scale is to go into effect April 1, and the others May 1.

Other unions that may yet be heard from are the hod carriers, plasterers, paper hangers, plumbers and tinners. It has not been announced whether there will be any demand for increased wages from any of these unions or not, except the plumbers.

The plumbers will not ask for a raise in salary or a decrease in working hours this year, it is authoritatively stated, but will instead ask for certain regulations relative to employing helpers. The plumbers will meet soon and arrange their plans and present them to the proprietors at the earliest convenience.

Building in Paducah is likely to suffer from these demands, if indications count for anything, whether the demands are granted or not. It is reported that one contractor who has a new job to be finished this spring, on account of bidding on it before these demands were made known, will lose on his contract. Other buildings contemplated may not be erected at all at present, on account of the increase in cost.

It is said that one building contemplated for the business part of the city will cost $400 more under the new scales than the owners of the property figured on, and there is talk of their abandoning it for the present.

Some of the contractors openly declare that they will not grant the increases asked. If they do not, strikes will be precipitated that will doubtless have a still worse effect on building. At present all the workmen are working under the old scales and apparently will not take much interest in the new scales until the time comes for a reply from the contractors.

Plans are being drawn by Architect B. B. Davis for a three story addition to the warehouse of M. Livingston's wholesale grocery establishment on North First street between Jefferson and Broadway.

The addition will make the building four stories high and it will be a handsome structure of brick and stone. It will be of slow combustion construction for fire protection.

Messrs. Chamblin and Dunlap, of Paducah, will probably get the contract for erecting the new wholesale grocery building at Cairo for the company of which Mr. George B. Warran, of Paducah, is a member. The cost will be about $18,000, but the contract has not yet been let.

Capt. Harry Baldwin, formerly of Paducah, but now of Evansville, is in the city on business. He works for a big concrete company, and will do the concrete sidewalk work for Contractor E. O. Terrell, and will probably be here several weeks before the work is completed.

Captain G. W. Wilson, of the steamer Pavonia, has closed a contract with J. M. Rouse, the carpenter, to build a fine two-story residence at No. 626 North Sixth street. Work will begin on the house at once.

The contract for a two story double tenement flat to be erected in the rear of Temple Israel, at Seventh and Broadway, has been let to Contractor J. W. Lockwood. The cost will be about $6,000.

Work is being done on West Jefferson street, which is being extended from Fountain avenue. It was sus-

KICK AND SCREAM

Baby's Awful Suffering from Eczema.

Could Not Hold Her. She Tore Her Face and Arms.

Cuticura Saved Her Life, So Mother Says.

"When my little girl was six months old, she had eczema. We had used cold creams and all kinds of remedies, but nothing did her any good, in fact, she kept getting worse. I used to wrap her hands up, and when I would dress her, I had to put her on the table for I could not hold her. She would kick and scream, and when she could, she would tear her face and arms almost to pieces. I used four boxes of Cuticura Ointment, two cakes of Cuticura Soap, and gave her the Cuticura Resolvent, and she was cured, and I see no traces of the humor left. I can truthfully say that they have saved her life, and any one suffering as she did, I should advise them to give Cuticura a fair trial." MRS. G. A. CONRAD, Lisbon, N. H., Feb. 7, 1893.

Five years later, viz., Feb. 23, 1903, Mrs. Conrad writes:

"It is with pleasure that I can inform you that the cure has been permanent as it is now six years since she was cured, and there has been no return of the disease since, and I have advised a lot of friends to use the Cuticura Remedies in all diseases of the skin."

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tormented babies, and rest for tired, fretted mothers, in warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure and purest of emollients, to be followed in severe cases by mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted and pimply skin and scalp humors, eczemas, rashes and irritations.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (In form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 50c. per box of six.) Cuticura Soap, 25c. per cake. Cuticura Ointment, 25c. per tin. Prepared by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U.S.A. Sold by all druggists and dealers.

Building in Paducah is likely to suffer from these demands, if indications count for anything, whether the demands are granted or not. It is reported that one contractor who has a new job to be finished this spring, on account of bidding on it before these demands were made known, will lose on his contract. Other buildings contemplated may not be erected at all at present, on account of the increase in cost.

Mr. John Skelton has purchased a lot on North Sixth street near Jefferson and is preparing to erect upon it a $4,000 cottage, for which plans are being made by Architect A. L. Lassiter.

Architect A. L. Lassiter is drawing plans for a bottling works to be erected at Dawson Springs by Mr. W. I. Hamby, for the bottling of mineral water. It will cost about $1,000.

Mr. James O. Utterback, of the City National Bank, has sold his residence at 826 Jefferson street to Mr. Tom Barry, of Barry & Henneberger, the consideration being $5,500.

The Elks Building Association did not hold a meeting last night because there was not a quorum present. It is probable that the next meeting will be held Friday night next.

New concrete steps are being built at the ladies' entrance to the Palmer House, near Broadway and Fifth.

GETTING BOLD

MORE TROUBLE POSSIBLE BETWEEN RACES IN BALLARD.

A resident of Ballard county who was in the city today stated that some of the idle negroes of the Kevil section are getting troublesome again and loafing about the I. O. depot in such a way as to greatly annoy passengers. It is feared that if they do not remain away there will be trouble. Last summer there was a fight in which one white boy, Crockett Childers, was shot and fatally injured, for which a negro was lynched at Wickliffe, and after that the worthless class was subdued and caused no annoyance. Lately they are said to be getting impudent again.

RIFLE SHOT.

CHAMPION COMING TO PADUCAH TO GIVE EXHIBITION.

The Gun club today received notice that with Messrs. Cassidy and Horeschew, who arrive tomorrow and will attend a shoot of the Paducah Gun club at the park, will come Adolph Toppertin, of Dallas, Tex., champion rifle shot of the world. He has a record of 1500 straight shots at inch and half blocks at thirty feet, and tomorrow afternoon will give an exhibition at Wallace park, which doubtless many people will go out to witness. It will be free, and the only opportunity the people may ever have to see an exhibition by the champion rifle shot.

MORE BAD LUCK

The Towboat Sprague Blows Out a Cylinder Head.

Several Boats Were Sunk and Her Tow Was Very Badly Scattered.

THE DAMAGE ABOUT $2,000

Louisville, Ky., March 8.—The blowing out of a cylinder head on the mammoth towboat Sprague caused dissolution and disaster to a big tow that the boat was trying to shove up stream over the falls.

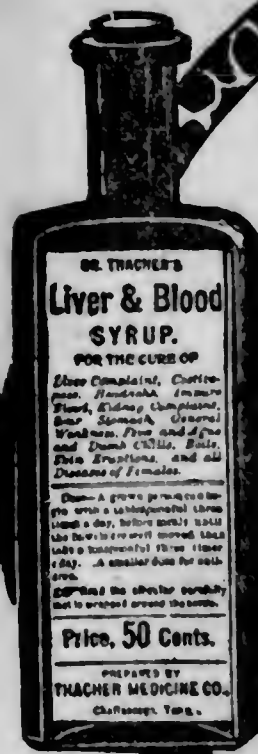

The Sprague had a tow of 34 pieces, 31 empties and three lumber barges and was assisted by the steamers Transit and Fulton.

When the tow was opposite the "Wing dam," the Sprague's cylinder head blew out, disabling the huge steamer. The auxiliary boats were unable to cope with the current and the tow was jammed against a pier of the 14th street bridge. One of the lumber boats was sunk; the fuel boat containing about 1,000 bushels of coal was torn loose and the entire tow was scattered. The damage done is estimated at about $2,000. The "empties" spread all over the river, but were captured and tied to the bank before any could get entirely away. The Sprague was not injured.

Captain Devan, of the life saving station, sent a boat to the assistance of the towboatmen manned by the following crew: Ed Farrell, Owen Curley and Ed McDonough.

The towboat E. T. Sliter, which was below the bridge, and the tug Wash Gray, which was at the Pumpkin Patch, assisted in recovering the scattered tow.

The Lilly, the U. S. light house tender, which has been laying up here for three months, will go out Thursday to St. Louis.

THE CITY COUNCIL

First Passage Given the Tax Rate Ordinance Last Night.

The Bond Issue Taken Up—A Committee Appointed to Look After the North Side Station.

MUCH BUSINESS TRANSACTED

The council met in regular session last night with all members present.

The report of the board of city tax book supervisors was presented, received and filed. The report shows realty owned by whites amounting to $6,142,550, an increase of $389,943 over the assessment by Assessor Stewart Dick; realty owned by colored people, $193,515, an increase of $14,335; total realty assessment, $6,336,065. Personal property owned by whites $2,256,283, an increase of $225,230 over assessor's assessment; colored personal property $9,535, an increase of $1,100. Total personal assessment $2,265,817, which added to the total realty assessment makes a grand total of $8,601,882.

The report showed that City Assessor Dick had failed to assess 127 pieces of property valued at $124,400 and personal estate valued at $101,883, making a total of $226,283. The franchise owned by the Independent Telephone company and Paducah Steam Heating company, were reduced in value from $5,600 to $300.

Market Master Frank Smalley asked permission to let merchants who desire to buy up marketing at wholesale, begin buying at 7 o'clock instead of 8 o'clock, and the matter was referred. The grocers had herebefore bought up all good marketing before the residents could get down to the market house and the ordinance compelling them to wait until 8 o'clock was passed to remedy the matter.

The matter of purchasing typewriters for the offices of Mayor, Clerk and Auditor, was referred to the finance committee.

The request of City Jailor Tom Evitts for permission to build a stable in the rear of his residence, within the fire limits, was referred.

The street inspector and city engineer were ordered to repair defective drainage at Twelfth and Madison streets.

The ordinance committee was instructed to draft an ordinance specifying what shall be weighed on the city scales and fixing a price on each different article.

The board appropriated $100 to the Charity Club to assist in caring for the poor.

Mayor Yeiser stated that he thought something should be done immediately toward establishing an additional fire station on the north side, and recommended that a new station be built on the city property near Tenth and Clay streets or the brick building at those two streets be rented and used as a station temporarily.

He stated that Chief Woods thought he might get along with sixteen men instead of nineteen, as provided for in the last act passed by the city governing the fire departments, and suggested the police and fire commissioners appoint no more men than was necessary—if Chief Woods could get along with sixteen not to appoint the full nineteen men provided for by the ordinance.

Mayor Yeiser stated that he thought the demands of the insurance companies are excessive, and suggested the city meet the insurance men and adjust the matter in a compromise, if possible. The fire commissioners and fire committee was ordered to bring in estimates of the cost of the new station.

The matter of appropriating $2,000 to the Carnegie library board to buy books, so the library can be opened this summer, was referred.

The report of City Solicitor Puryear recommending that the city delinquent tax list be published once each week for two weeks in the official organ, was concurred in.

Mayor Yeiser reported the passage of the second class city charter amendments, and stated that he had heard unofficially that the legislature had passed an act by which cities of the second class may fix the salary of the jailor, and if this be true the city would win its suit, which jailor Tom

For Indigestion

Bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, belching of gas, heart burn, no appetite and a loss of strength are some of the symptoms the person must endure whose stomach and digestive organs fail to digest and assimilate the food they eat. If not cured catarrh of the stomach is the result.

For a number of years I was troubled with Dyspepsia and Indigestion. It grew into the worst form, nothing I used did me any good. Finally I tried Kodol and after using four bottles I was entirely cured. Kodol does all that you claim for it. I recommend it to all sufferers from Dyspepsia and Indigestion.—Mrs. Carrie Grandall, Tray, I. T.

"Kodol digests what you eat"

Kodol represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach. It cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach, and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It restores health to the stomach and strength to the body by enabling the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. Makes the sick well and the weak strong.

ing of the bonds.

City Solicitor Puryear reported that Circuit Judge Reed had decided that the street, hospital and market house bonds were legal, and that the suit was now in the hands of the court of appeals.

On motion the board adjourned.

WITH CAIRO

DUMMY HUGHES AND OTHERS MUST PLAY THIS SEASON.

Cairo is having trouble getting three of its last years players it wants for this season, Dummy Hughes, Robert Wallace and Perry Wilder, and wrote to the Secretary of the National Association about it. A reply from him states that the players are on Cairo's reserve list, and cannot play elsewhere. This probably means they must play with Cairo.

GAVE HER LIFE

WAS SOLE RELIANCE TO PROVE ALIBI FOR MAN CONVICTED OF MURDER.

Denver, Col., March 8—Bessie Foster, of Evansville, Ind., died here from peritonitis, following an operation for appendicitis. She came here in defiance of urgent warning of physicians at home, who declared it would be suicidal for her to make the trip. She was the sole reliance of Russell Boles to prove an alibi. Boles was convicted Saturday of murdering Harold Fritchborn and assaulting his sister on the night of December 31, 1901. Boles' attorney wrote Miss Foster that an innocent man's life depended upon her testimony, and with that appeal she decided to take her chances of life. Thursday she was subjected to severe cross examination and that night was sent to the hospital.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"Wishes and not words are the true prayers."

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Wednesday. Warmer Wednesday in west portion.

WHY THIS DELAY?

The councilman board last night voted to refer the market house, city hospital and paved streets bonds issue to a committee. This means that the aldermen in a few days will vote on the same question, and possibly ratify the action of the council, and possibly not. If it does, in the course of time, the mayor always takes his time—the committee may be named. The committee will then take a few days to ruminate on the subject, and a meeting may be called. By this time it will be spring, and the first few meetings will likely adjourn without doing anything. They will cross and discuss, and move to meet again the next week. Then there will be no quorum present, and they will adjourn. After that they may at some subsequent meeting agree on a report, and the report will possibly be ready to present to the council by mid-summer. If it suits the boards, it may be concurred in. If it doesn't, it will be voted down and a new committee probably appointed. If it is adopted the provisions in it will be carried out at the leisure of our able legislators, which means that possibly before next winter the bond business will be settled and the city will be ready to sell her bonds.

There is no excuse for the delay that has already marked the bond affair in Paducah. To think that after four months have elapsed, the city should find the bond matter right where it was the day after election, is a disgrace to municipal government. Nothing could more clearly indicate the indifference and incompetency of our city officials.

There is the fire department question, also taken up last night and also referred. It has been before the boards for the past three or four years. The insurance companies have made their demands several times, and no attention was paid to them. If we are not mistaken, it first came up under Mayor Lang's administration, and yet it has never been settled to this day. There was no excuse for putting it off last night. Any man with ordinary intelligence can see that it merely means "will we do it, or will we not?" They could have settled the question last night in a few minutes without referring it to anything. The way the boards transact business in Paducah justifies the belief that nothing will be done for weeks. The committees seem totally unprepared for any responsibility or duty imposed on them. They do nothing but "put off."

Several weeks ago the matter of furnishing Chief of Police Collins with a buggy in which to make his rounds of the city was referred to a committee. Last night the committee asked further time. The idea of officials being unable to make up their minds on a question like that! They ought to settle it in five minutes.

Then the library matter came up last night, and was also "referred." This means more indefinite delay. It means more time frittered away while our wise and active representatives in the boards try to grasp the intricate details of whether or not the city will give the library board $2,000 so it can get some books and open the library. In the course of a few weeks, after they have thrashed out the different questions involved, they will probably come up and ask for further time in order to remove any doubt that may exist, and the board of aldermen may then take it up. We have some great city officials in Paducah!

The council last night voted down the ordinance abolishing the meat and milk inspector's office. There is apparently no reason for its action. The office is a mere sinecure, and most of the meat and milk daily sold in Paducah is never seen by the inspector. The only reason the city created the office in the first place, was to protect the citizens from impure meat and milk, and the protection has not been forthcoming, not because the inspector has not done the work as well as it could be done, but because under the cumbersome workings of the ordinance it is impossible to carry out the intention of the law. A report to government officers by state officers made recently stated that two or more dairymen in Paducah had been selling impure or "doctored" milk. Did the local inspector know anything about it? If he did he never made a report of it or secured a warrant against the offenders. For all the people know the dairymen, whoever they are, may still be selling the same kind of milk. The general council should either make the office of some benefit to the people or abolish it and save the city $600 a year.

Perhaps "Lord" Barrington's tears are fully justified. His first experience in St. Louis was when he was sentenced to the work house for six months because he got knocked out of a house by his brother-in-law. He was subsequently released because public sentiment revolted at the unjust punishment, and has now been tried and convicted on circumstantial evidence for killing his benefactor. Few persons who have followed the evidence can understand, no doubt, why this friendless man, scorned though he may be, should be condemned to death on such slight testimony when so many red-headed murderers, who are seen to commit harrowing and cowardly crimes escape with imprisonment, or go free entirely because of technicalities or on pleas of insanity. Too many guilty men escape these days, and too many perhaps innocent men are convicted on circumstantial evidence, because of the ignorance and prejudice of jurymen. We can never have a high quality of justice until we adopt a higher standard of jurymen.

The saloons of St. Louis were closed six hours Sunday in compliance with a new law, or more properly, a spasmodic enforcement of an old one. Simultaneously a number of highway robberies were committed, a score or more fights took place, a conductor was thrown through a car window, and a whole squad of police was put to flight for trying to quell a fight at a dance. Evidently the frisky denizens of the Patne Great object to having to slip in the back door.

The members of the council should have more regard for the business interests of the city than to oppose the building of a spur track on an unused street like First street. There is very little passage of either people or vehicles on this thoroughfare, and a spur track from the track that runs down the middle of the street would apparently not interfere with anyone. It is hard to understand why the business concerns in that locality should be denied the convenience.

Visitors to the World's Fair who do not desire to patronize hotels and boarding houses, will find a novelty in a city of 1,000 tents, furnished as completely as a hotel, within five minutes' walk of the exposition grounds. Even if there were nothing else new, this will be one thing not seen at other expositions.

"Calhouning" the state seems to have been a mild dose compared to the medicine the prison management and printing concerns have been administering to the tax payers. Perhaps, when the truth is known, we shall be grateful to Capt. Calhoun for letting us down so light.

Mr. Bryan now has the center of the stage. Last week it was Mr. Cleveland. Willie Hearst and Judge Parker say nothing and saw wood, while Senator Gorman talked himself to political death against the Panama canal.

The United States will not be too exacting about its title to the Panama canal. With Panama and the canal company satisfied, Uncle Sam will be amply able to take care of any others who are venturesome enough to "butt in."

The Mormons profess to see the "finger of God" in enabling the principles of Mormonism to be given to the world through the congressional investigation. Later they may feel the strong hand of justice.

At last accounts the ravens hadn't been able to do their stunt with "Elijah" Dowie because the Australians won't let him stay in one place long enough.

Sly old Russia is not getting very complimentary press notices, but it is observed she is not wasting any ammunition just yet.

If the Democrats can't find any one else to nominate for President we suggest Jo. A. Parker.

OH FUDGE!

Impels us to admit that we are not prepared to fully enjoy the bestowal of such charitable offerings. A LOST TEAM.

Mr. Ed. Ware reported at the police station this afternoon that he left his wagon with two mules attached to it on Broadway yesterday and when he returned it was gone. The team is supposed to have been driven away, and no trace of it has yet been found.

Miss Agnes Brogan, of 1356 Trimble street, is out after a long illness.

THE SEARCH STOPS.

THE RIGHT THING HAS BEEN FOUND—A PADUCAH CITIZEN SHOWS THE WAY.

Once more we are indebted to a citizen for a public statement that throws more light on a subject of ever increasing interest. People have been deceived by false misrepresentations from time immemorial. No wonder they are skeptical of all claims endorsed by strangers, residing in far-distant parts of the Union. It is no longer necessary to accept such endorsements, for local citizens are giving their testimony, and 'tis an easy matter for any reader to investigate the correctness of such evidence as the following:

Mr. H. L. Blackford, of 615 Washington street, carpenter by trade, says: "It struck me when reading a notice about Doan's Kidney Pills that if they performed half what they promised they might cure my kidney complaint, which annoyed me in the shape of backache. I went to Du Bois & Co.'s drug store, got a box and commenced the treatment. If it had not benefited me I never would have bought a second, and if the second had not brought undoubted results I could not be induced to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to friends and acquaintances personally, much less publicly."

Gentlemen:—It affords me great pleasure to state, regarding your SATINOLA, that my face was splattered very badly. I had tried other remedies, and all seemed to bring out the blotches plainer. THRASHING IN SCHOOLS.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Corporal punishment in schools still survives as a rule of barbaric methods; its employment in an Indian school upon 30 pupils at one time by the principal in the presence of the woman teacher upset the teacher's reason. The chastigation must have been of unusual ferocity or the teacher's nervous sensibilities lightly poised.

Hitting as a means of illuminating the childish mind does not enjoy the confidence it once did. There are other punishments as efficacious without being so violent. Thrashing a pupil may subdue him, but done in the presence of the other pupils, it distracts their minds for hours and outrages their feelings. A flush of shame can be observed diffusive itself over their faces that comes from their embarrassment at having to submit to such a spectacle.

A teacher may think a boy about because he misbehaves, but the days are well high past where it does other than harm. Whipping is not looked on as lightly as it once was. It carries with it now a deeper degradation than it did in the schools of thirty or forty years ago, where the teacher went about with ruler in hand slapping and banging all day long.

He is expected now to use his intelligence and not his fist and children are quite as studious and dutiful in the schoolroom and no less bright than they used to be. It is a poor teacher who can not win the regard of his pupils to a degree that will enable him to control their behavior; and considering the insight and patience it requires it is seldom that they are well enough paid for it.

ON A RANCH

WOMAN FOUND THE FOOD THAT FITTED HER.

A newspaper woman went out to a Colorado ranch to rest and recuperate and her experience with the food problem is worth recounting.

"The woman at the ranch was preeminently the worst housekeeper I have ever known—poor soul, and I poor man!

"I simply had to have food good and plenty of it for I had broken down from overwork and was so weak I could not sit up over one hour at a time. I knew I could not get well unless I secured food I could easily digest and that would supply the greatest amount of nourishment.

"One day I obtained permission to go through the pantry and see what I could find. Among other things I came across a package of Grape Nuts which I had heard of but never tried. I read the description on the package and became deeply interested so then and there I got a saucer and some cream and tried the famous food.

"It tasted delicious to me and seemed to freshen and strengthen me greatly so I stipulated that Grape Nuts and cream be provided each day instead of other food and I literally lived on Grape Nuts and cream for two or three months.

"If you could have seen how fast I got well it would have pleased and surprised you. I am now perfectly well and strong again and know exactly how I got well and that was on Grape Nuts that furnished me a powerful food I could digest and make use of.

"It seems to me no brain worker can afford to overlook Grape Nuts after my experience." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Louisville, Ky., March 8.—The Seventh annual convention of local unions of district No. 23, United Mine Workers of America, is in session in the council chamber at the City Hall, with seventy-five delegates in attendance. In his report read to the convention of the Southwestern Kentucky miners union, president C. W. Wells advises a stiff rate of assessment, as he thinks a strike is inevitable in his district. He says when the time comes for the miners to strike, and he thinks it is coming, the miners must be prepared with funds. He congratulated the various local unions on their strength and earnestness and said that they were all in good shape.

BEAUTY TRIUMPHS,

'Tis a Priceless Treasure.
Beauty is woman's greatest charm. The world adores beautiful women. A pretty woman dreads maternity for fear of losing this power. What can be done to perpetuate the race and keep women beautiful until they are old? The answer is simple. There is a balm used by cultured and uncultured women in the crisis. Husbands should investigate this remedy in order to reassure their wives as to the ease with which children can be born and beauty of form and figure retained.

The Gentleman From Indiana

By BOOTH TARKINGTON

Copyright, 1922, by Doubleday & McClure Co.
Copyright, 1922, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

"That's just what I hate about him," returned the bell ringer in a tone of high complaint. "You can't never tell which half it is. Look at him now!" The gentleman referred to was standing over in front of the hotel talking to a row of countless loungers, who sat with their chairs tilted back against the props of the wooden awning that projected over the sidewalk. Their faces were turned toward the courthouse, and even those lost in meditative whittling had looked up to laugh. Mr. Martin, one of his hands thrust in a pocket of his alpaca coat and the other softly caressing his wiry, gray chin beard, his rusty silk hat tilted forward till the brim almost rested on the bridge of his nose, was addressing them in a one-eyed voice, the melancholy whine of which, though not the words, penetrated to the courteous steps.

The bell ringer, whose name was Henry Schofield, but who was known as Schofield's Henry (popularly abbreviated to Schofield's), was moved to indignation. "Look at him!" he cried. "Look at him! Everlastingly gone! on about my bell! Well, let him talk, let him talk!"

As Mr. Martin's eye fell upon the editor, who, having made the bell ringer good night, was approaching the hotel, he left his languid companions and crossed the street to meet him.

"I was only on the law proud the city ought to be of Schofield's," he said mournfully as they shook hands; "but he looks kind of put out with me." He hooked his arm in that of the young man and detained him for a moment as the supper "gong" sounded from within the hotel. "Call on the judge tonight," he asked.

"No. Why?"

"I reckon you didn't see that lady with Alvin last night."

"No."

"Well, I guess you better go out there, young man. She might not stay here long."

CHAPTER II.

THE Briscoe backboard rattled along the elastic country road, the rooms settling a sharp pace as they turned eastward on the pike toward home.

"They'll make the eight miles in three-quarters of an hour," said Judge Briscoe proudly. He turned from his daughter at his side to Miss Sherwood, who sat with Mr. Briscoe behind them, and pointed ahead with his whip. "Just beyond that bend we pass through Six Crossroads."

Miss Sherwood leaned forward eagerly. "What did you mean last night after the lecture," she said to Briscoe, "when you asked Mr. Martin who was to be with Mr. Harkness?"

"Who was watching him," he answered.

"Watching him? I don't understand."

"Yes; they have shot at him from the woods at night, and—"

"But who watches him?"

"The young men of the town. He has a habit of taking long walks after dark, and he is heedless of all remonstrance, so the young men have organized a guard for him, and every evening one of them follows him until he goes to the office to work for the night. It is a different young man each night, and the watcher follows at a distance, so that he does not suspect."

"But how many people know of this arrangement?"

"Nearly every one in the county except the Crossroads people, though it is not probable that they have discovered it."

"And has no one told him?"

"No; he would not allow it to continue. He will not even arm himself."

"They follow and watch him night after night, and every one knows and no one tells him? Oh, I must say," cried the girl, "I think these are good people!"

The backboard turned the bend in the road, and they entered a small settlement built raggily about a blacksmith shop and a saloon. "I'd hate to have a breakdown here," Briscoe remarked quietly.

Half a dozen shanties clustered near the forge, a few roofs scattered through the shiftlessly cultivated fields, four or five barns propped by fence rails, some sheds with gaping apertures through which the light glanced from side to side, a squad of thin razorback hogs, bow and then worried by giant hounds, and some abused looking hogs groping about disconsolately in the mire, a broken topped buggy with a twisted wheel, settling into the mud of the middle of the road (there was always abundant mud here in the driest summer); a thin face sneering from a broken window—Six Crossroads was forbidding and forbore enough by day. The thought of what might issue from it by night was unpleasant, and the legends of the Crossroads, together with an unshapen threat easily fancied in the atmosphere of the place, made Miss Sherwood shiver as though a cold draft had crossed her.

"It is so sinister!" she exclaimed. "And so unspeakably mean! This is where they live, the people that hate him, is it? The White Caps?"

"They call themselves that," replied Briscoe. "Usually, White Caps are a vigilance committee in a region where the law isn't enforced. These fellows aren't that kind. They got together to wipe out grudges, and sometimes didn't need any grudge—just made their raids for pure devilment. There's a feud between us and them that goes back into pioneer days, and only a few of us old folks know much about it."

"And he was the first to try to stop them?"

"Well, you see, our folks are pretty long suffering," said Briscoe apologetically. "We'd sort of got used to the meanness of the Crossroads. It took a stranger to stir things up, and he did. He sent eight of them to the penitentiary, some for twenty years."

As they passed the saloon a man stepped into the doorway and looked at them. He was countless and clad in garments worn to the color of dust. His bare head was curiously malformed, higher on one side than on the other, and though the backboard passed rapidly and at a distance this singular lopsidedness was plainly visible to the occupants, lending an ugly significance to his meager, yellow face. He was tall, lean, hard, powerfully built. He eyed the strangers with affected languor and then, when they had gone by, broke into sudden loud laughter.

"That was Bob Skillet, the worst of the lot," said the judge. "Harkness sent his son and one brother to prison, and it nearly broke his heart that he couldn't swear to Bob."

When they were beyond the village and in the open road again Miss Sherwood took a deep breath. "I think I breathe more freely. That was a hideous laugh he sent after us."

The judge glanced at his guest's face and chuckled. "I guess we won't frighten you much," he said. "Young lady, I don't believe you'd be afraid of many things, would you? You don't look like it. Besides, the Crossroads isn't that bad, and the White Caps have been too scared to do anything much except try to get even with the Herald for the last two years—ever since it went for them. They're laying for Harkness partly for revenge and partly because they don't do anything until he's out of the way."

WOMEN IN CHOIRS

New Ruling of the Pope Not to Affect United States.

The Change Will Be Gradual Throughout the World.

The matter of women having to leave the choir of Catholic churches is again being agitated in a number of papers in the country, as it has been done periodically for many years past.

It is well understood, however, that any order issued to this effect would not apply in the United States. It is understood the late Pope intended to make such a rule at the time of his death, but never did it. The new Pope, it is said, has issued an order that women must be dropped from the choir, but it will not be enforced in the United States.

"It would be almost impossible to get up choirs without women in the United States," said a well known Catholic. "Of course the Holy Father's ruling applies to the universal church, but I think it will be enforced especially in Rome, and more gradually throughout the world."

"Circumstances make it impossible to introduce the Gregorian chant in smaller churches where there is no possibility of introducing the ecclesiastical music prescribed by the Holy Father. The change must be gradual in these churches."

"The Pope desires the restoration of the ancient church music, the Gregorian chant, which has fallen into disuse to a certain extent."

"The recent ruling does not exclude all figured music from the Catholic church. The works of the great masters, as for instance Palestrina, may still be sung."

The Gregorian chant is the plainest and most severe kind of choral music, solemn, severe and sonorous for male voices. Only in recent years have female voices been allowed in Catholic church choirs.

TENNIS SOON

Y.M.C.A. RECREATION GROUNDS OPENED EARLY THIS SPRING.

The Young Men's Christian association has just completed arrangements for a second year's use of the lots near Kentucky avenue and Seventh street as out door recreation grounds. Last year this feature was very popular. Over 40 persons were enrolled in the tennis club, and the tennis courts were open to the public on the payment of a small fee. Three courts instead of two will be built this season and with last season's foundation to build on will be put in far better condition. Work will be commenced as soon as possible and the grounds will be ready for use about 30 days earlier than last year if not more. Both ladies and gentlemen, and members and non-members of the association will be allowed the use of the grounds upon payment of a small fee.

Second Vice President Wallace and Chief Engineer Coming

They Will Arrive From Memphis and Make a Trip Over the Cairo Road.

Mr. J. F. Wallace, second vice president of the I. C., his son, Chief Engineer H. U. Wallace and other high officials of the I. C., will arrive in the city this afternoon about 3:15 o'clock from Memphis on a special train and will leave about 4:30 for Cairo on an inspection tour.

There has been talk of making a terminal at Ninth and Trimble streets for the freight and passenger business of the Cairo extension on account of the difficulty of getting through the city, but local officials do not credit the story. It has been denied and the inspection today is merely an action taken by the officials who were coming this way and wanted to see the progress made on this part of the division.

COULDN'T MARRY

UNTIL A GUARDIAN FOR THE BRIDE WAS APPOINTED TODAY.

Charles Batzloff, who gave his occupation as a peddler and Edith May Pace, a fifteen year old girl were licensed to marry today. The groom is 35, and when he applied for a license he learned that the bride would have to have the consent of parents or guardian. The girl is an orphan and had no guardian, so one was appointed for her, Mr. J. F. Mattingly. He qualified and then gave his consent, and the couple left happy, seeking someone to tie the knot. It is the second marriage of the groom and the first of the bride. The guardian at first refused prior to his qualification to give his consent, having raised the girl.

KILLING AT MOUNDS.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL OFFICER SENT TO GET RID OF BUMS MAKES A GOOD START.

Beruet Marcoun was sent from Chicago by the Illinois Central last Wednesday to Mounds, Ill., to rid the place of the thieves and bums who hang around the depot. Ed Moore, colored, was ordered away several times, and the officer found him again in the depot Sunday evening.

An altercation followed in which the negro drew a pistol and shot at the officer and afterwards struck him with the pistol, finally as he was propped against the seats in the depot trying to shoot, being shot through the head and killed. The officer was exonerated.

Theatrical Notes.

Mr. C. S. Cauley, in advance of Billy Kersand's minstrel, is at Hotel Lagomarsino.

The Van Dyke company last night had an overflowing house at the Kentucky theater. "Across the Desert" was doubtless never more creditably presented and every member of the cast won deserved applause. Mr. Van Dyke in the Indian character did one of the best pieces of work ever seen and his sister, an attractive and talented little lady, made a great hit in the female lead. The character parts were all up to the standard of this excellent company and the specialties were splendid. The indications are for big business every evening. The specialties alone will bring out the people.

RIBS BROKEN.

MR. PHILIP ROSER PAINFULLY HURT TODAY.

Mr. Philip Roser was struck by the singletree of his wagon while fixing some part of his harness, which had come loose, this morning on Tennessee street, and two ribs on the right side were broken. He was carried to his home on South Second street, and Dr. D. T. Stuart attended him.

WON THE PRIZE AND DESERVED IT.

A doll luncheon given in a Western city and participated in by twenty young women had in it much of fun and novelty. All the guests came dressed as dolls, prizes being awarded for the best representations. The young woman who took the first prize deserved it, without doubt. She had herself done up in tissue paper, was put in a large pasteboard box, and was delivered by express at the house at the luncheon hour, and owed to the hostess. During the unwinding process in the parlor she made no sign and when head, arms, feet and body had been relieved of the enfolding paper, a perfect French babe was revealed, who said "Papa" and "Mamma," in a nice little machinery voice and who stepped out of the box and across the floor with the mincing gait of a walking doll. All sorts and conditions of dolls were there—Chinese, Japanese, and darkey dolls with baby and nurse dolls and a clever imitation of a rag doll. One girl went as a worsted doll dressed in knitted wool shirt and golf sweater, gold stockings and worsted booties.—Harper's Bazar.

WHAT HE WANTED THE BIBLE FOR.

Congressman Dick, of Akron, tells this about President McKinley: "McKinley was always good to the poor. When he lived in Canton he had each winter a great stock of blankets, shoes, potatoes, Bibles, and so forth, that he would distribute where they were needed most."

"One day he gave a Bible to a news boy. He would not have ventured upon such a gift as this had not the newsboy asked for the book."

"I am glad," Mr. McKinley said to the lad, "that you want a Bible. Are you happy now that you have got one?"

"Yes, sir," said the boy; "I know a place where I can trade it off for a fiddle."—New York Tribune.
